Department Introduction

The Department of International Studies (English-Chinese) trains global talent with English and Chinese communication ability, along with broad insight into the politics, economy, society, and culture of the English-speaking world and China.

Department Description

Students can major in one language (English or Chinese) or both at once, with the option to cross-certify between the two languages according to career needs. Learning combines fully online classes, 1-on-1 English/Chinese phone conversation practice, weekly live classes per course, and out-of-class activities such as business trips to China and volunteer work in Cebu, Philippines.
