Department Introduction

The Department of Social Welfare Administration (사회복지행정학과) at Sejong Cyber University trains social welfare administration experts who can lead the development of effective social welfare systems.

Department Description

Students are trained to coordinate and manage social welfare service-delivery systems in the public sector, including integrated case management for customized welfare services and neighborhood-level door-to-door outreach services. Graduates are prepared to become mid- to top-level managers who can establish and run social welfare foundations or institutions, including private facilities such as elderly-care homes, and support employment policy.
