Department Introduction

The Department of Military and Police Counseling (군경상담학과) trains psychological counseling experts for specialized fields such as the military, police, and corrections.

Department Description

The curriculum covers military counseling, military-police organizational psychology, leadership, military English, and counseling for trauma, crisis, family, youth, and addiction. Graduates are prepared to become barracks-life professional counselors (병영생활전문상담관), sexual-violence grievance counselors, or psychological counselors at police, fire, and corrections institutions, with the added benefit of bonus points toward military promotion.
