Department Introduction

The Art Therapy program (예술치료학과) sits under Sejong Cyber University's Division of Counseling Psychology. The department trains art-psychotherapy experts who use art to understand and heal both themselves and others.

Department Description

The curriculum combines psychological theory (personality psychology, developmental psychology, abnormal psychology) with art-therapy techniques such as fine-art therapy, music therapy, movement therapy, and bibliotherapy (therapy through story/books). Graduates are prepared for careers as art therapists, music therapists, play therapists, clinical psychologists, or psychological counselors, supported by both online and offline clinical internship programs.
